

Informal Consultations of States Parties to the United Nations Agreement for the Implementation of the Provisions of the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea of 10 December 1982 relating to the Conservation and Management of Straddling Fish Stocks and Highly Migratory Fish Stocks

Seventeenth round: “Sustainable fisheries management in the face of climate change”

New York, 15 and 17 May 2024, Conference Room 1

Information for participants

Background

Following the entry into force of the United Nations Fish Stocks Agreement on 11 December 2001, pursuant to General Assembly resolution 56/13 of 28 November 2001, the Secretary-General convened an Informal Meeting of the States Parties to the Agreement for the purposes and objectives of, inter alia, considering the regional, subregional and global implementation of the Agreement; making any appropriate recommendations to the General Assembly on the scope and content of the annual report of the Secretary-General relating to the Agreement; and preparing for the review conference to be convened by the Secretary-General pursuant to article 36 of the Agreement. From 2002 to 2023, sixteen rounds of Informal Consultations of States Parties to the Agreement were convened to address a variety of related topics.

Pursuant to General Assembly resolution 78/68, adopted on 11 December 2023, the seventeenth round of Informal Consultations of States Parties to the Agreement will be held, as an in-person meeting, at United Nations Headquarters in New York from 15 to 17 May 2024.

In paragraph 70 of resolution 78/68, the General Assembly recalled the recommendation of the resumed Review Conference in 2016 that the Informal Consultations of States Parties to the Agreement be dedicated, on an annual basis, to the consideration of specific issues arising from the implementation of the Agreement, with a view to improving understanding, sharing experiences and identifying best practices for the consideration of States Parties, as well as the General Assembly and the Review Conference.

Pursuant to paragraph 72 of resolution 78/68, the seventeenth round of Informal Consultations of States Parties to the Agreement (ICSP-17) will be convened for three days and focus its discussions on the topic “Sustainable fisheries management in the face of climate change”, from 15 to 17 May 2024.

ICSP-17 is an in person only meeting, with interpretation provided on an “as available” basis only.

In paragraph 74 of resolution 78/68, the General Assembly requested that the Secretary-General invite States parties to the Agreement and, as observers, States and entities referred to in the Convention and in article 1, paragraph 2 (b), of the Agreement not parties to the Agreement, the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations and other relevant organizations, bodies, funds and programmes within the United Nations system, the secretariats of relevant organizations and conventions and other relevant intergovernmental organizations and bodies, in particular subregional and regional fisheries management organizations and arrangements and related regional intergovernmental marine science organizations, and relevant non-governmental organizations, in accordance with past practice, to attend ICSP-17, while relevant scientific institutions may request an invitation to participate in the consultations as observers.

Background material

Delegations invited to submit written contributions on the topic “Sustainable fisheries management in the face of climate change”, may do so by 17 April 2024 via email to doalos@un.org, with a copy to amerim@un.org. Contributions received pursuant to this request, as well as other information and documentation, are available on the DOALOS website at: http://www.un.org/Depts/los/convention_agreements/fish_stocks_agreement_states_parties.htm.

Side events

Requests to hold side events during the Informal Consultations of States Parties to the Agreement must be communicated in writing to the Secretariat no later than 15 April 2024. All requests should be addressed to the Secretary of the Informal Consultations of States Parties to the Agreement (doalos@un.org, with a copy to amerim@un.org) with an indication of the title, organizing institution(s) and preferred date for the event.

The subject of the message should specify the following: “ICSP-17 Side Event Request”. Side events are expected to be held each day during lunchtime. Owing to the limited number of time slots available, the Division may not be able to accommodate all requests for side events or preferred dates. It therefore reserves the right to suggest the organization of joint side events should competing requests be received for the same date. Should the number of requests exceed the number of available days, the Division may also exercise its discretion in selecting side events with a view to ensuring variety in the topics covered by the side events.

Assistance Fund under Part VII

The Assistance Fund under Part VII of the Agreement has been depleted since October 2016. Thus, absent further contributions to the Assistance Fund, the Secretariat will not be in a position to accept applications to defer the cost of travel for representatives of States Parties to the Agreement. In this regard, attention is drawn to paragraph 63 of resolution 78/68, in which the General Assembly “urge[d] States, intergovernmental organizations, international financial institutions, national institutions and non-governmental organizations, as well as natural and juridical persons, to make voluntary financial contributions to the Assistance Fund established under Part VII of the Agreement.”
