I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

<http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/index.html>

III. Secretariat services

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

The “Blue Book” lists the diplomatic personnel of Member States, the staff of intergovernmental organizations accredited to the United Nations as observers and the staff of liaison offices of United Nations specialized agencies, as well as the membership of the principal organs of the United Nations.

Interim movements of personnel and changes in address, telephone/fax numbers, national holiday, etc., in the “Blue Book” are updated online as soon as the Protocol and Liaison Service is notified of such changes by the Missions.

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

<http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/index.html>

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

<http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/index.html>

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

<http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/index.html>

III. Secretariat services

The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. The “Blue Book” lists the diplomatic personnel of Member States, the staff of intergovernmental organizations accredited to the United Nations as observers and the staff of liaison offices of United Nations specialized agencies, as well as the membership of the principal organs of the United Nations.

Interim movements of personnel and changes in address, telephone/fax numbers, national holiday, etc., in the “Blue Book” are updated online as soon as the Protocol and Liaison Service is notified of such changes by the Missions.

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

<http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/index.html>

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

<http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/index.html>

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

<http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/index.html>

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

<http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/index.html>

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

<http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/index.html>

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

<http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/index.html>

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

<http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/index.html>

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

<http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/index.html>

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

The “Blue Book” lists the diplomatic personnel of Member States, the staff of intergovernmental organizations accredited to the United Nations as observers and the staff of liaison offices of United Nations specialized agencies, as well as the membership of the principal organs of the United Nations.

Interim movements of personnel and changes in address, telephone/fax numbers, national holiday, etc., in the “Blue Book” are updated online as soon as the Protocol and Liaison Service is notified of such changes by the Missions.

The Protocol and Liaison Service website (www.unodc.org/missions/bluebook/index.html) includes the most updated version of the “Blue Book”.

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

I. General Information

Venue

The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is located at Wagramer Strasse 5, 1220 Vienna. Information on how to arrive at the venue may be found online at www.unvienna.org.

Registration and list of participants

The details (name, title/function, address of workplace, telephone numbers and individual official email address) of participants to conferences (on official letterhead) should be received by the Secretariat in advance of the beginning of the conference (see the most recent annex for relevant dates). More detailed information on registration can be found online: <http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/registration.html>.

Providing the individual email addresses will ensure that all participants receive an automatic email response confirming their registration. The automatic email response will also contain a link where each participant may upload a photograph, in order to issue a pre-printed Conference badge, thus shortening the time it will take to issue an access card on the day of registration. Participants who do not complete the pre-registration procedure will need to have photographs taken in the Pass Office upon arrival at Gate 1 of the Vienna International Centre.

As part of the security arrangements, all participants are required to present their passports or other official photograph-bearing identity documents. The UN-issued access cards must be worn visibly at all times in the Vienna International Centre. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance to the Centre.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates are encouraged to register as early as possible and to complete registration formalities the day before the session.

A provisional list of participants is distributed on the second day of the meeting, and the final list is published on the last day of the meeting as document “INF.2” in English, French and Spanish.

Access to the Vienna International Centre

Participants arriving at the Vienna International Centre by taxi are advised to get off in the side lane (Nebenfahrbahn) of Wagramer Strasse, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza, proceed to entrance “C” and follow the signs to building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building. Participants arriving by metro (U1 line) should get off at the “Kaisermühlen-VIC” station, follow the signs which read “Vienna International Centre”, register at Gate 1, walk across Memorial Plaza and enter building “C” for conferences taking place in the C-building, and to building “A” for conferences taking place in the M-Building.

There are no parking facilities for conference participants, except for Permanent Mission delegates in possession of a valid parking permit.

All persons, personal items and vehicles entering the Vienna International Centre are subject to search by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS).

II. The Commissions

Commission on Narcotic Drugs

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) is the central policymaking body within the United Nations system dealing with drug-related matters. The Commission monitors the world drug situation, develops strategies on international drug control and recommends measures to combat the world drug problem, including through reducing demand for drugs, promoting alternative development initiatives and adopting supply reduction measures.

Regular sessions of the CND take place usually in March of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions usually have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs has 53 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of four years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

cnd.unodc.org

Twitter: @CND_tweets

Instagram: @cnd_unodc

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) is the central body within the United Nations system dealing with crime prevention and criminal justice policy, including trafficking in persons, transnational crime and aspects of terrorism prevention. It monitors the use and application of relevant United Nations standards and norms and guides policy developments in response to emerging forms of crime.

Regular sessions of the CCPCJ take place usually in April/May of every year, with a duration of five working days, while the reconvened sessions have a duration of 2 days in the first two weeks of December.

The CCPCJ has 40 States members, which are elected by the Economic and Social Council for a term of three years. More information is available on the website of the Commission, including a fact sheet on elections and membership:

ccpcj.unodc.org

Twitter: @CCPCJ

Instagram: @ccpcj_unodc

Reconvened sessions of the Commissions

Reconvened sessions of the CND and CCPCJ take place usually in December of every year. Since 2011, the CND and CCPCJ hold joint meetings at the first day of their reconvened sessions for the sole purpose of considering the agenda item on strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions, with a view to providing integrated policy directives on these issues to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

The Commissions continue to hold separate meetings back-to-back during their reconvened sessions to consider other items on their respective agendas.

Plenary

The plenary meetings of each Commission are devoted to the consideration of agenda items, where Commission members and observers may make oral interventions under the different items. After the approval of draft resolutions by the Committee of the Whole, the plenary is in charge of adopting the final resolutions or decisions of the Commission, as well as the final report on its sessions.

The Plenary meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

The Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole is devoted to the consideration of draft resolutions and runs in parallel to the meetings of the Plenary.

The meetings of the Committee of the Whole are usually chaired by the First Vice-Chairperson of the respective session of each Commission.

Draft resolutions

Procedure for tabling a draft resolution

States intending to submit draft resolutions for consideration at the sessions of the Commission are requested to submit them as early as possible, and at the latest by the deadline set by each Commission (please see the Annex for the specific deadlines).

Draft resolutions must be submitted to the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies in electronic form together with an official transmittal note. The draft resolution must be sent in a Word document so that it can be processed (formatted, edited and translated) and made available to the Commission.

Changes to the text of submitted draft resolutions

Before the start of the work of the Committee of the Whole:

- Once a draft resolution has been submitted to the Secretariat and once it has been edited, any changes to the text must be made on the final edited text.
- For this purpose, the sponsors are requested to obtain the final electronic Word document from the Secretariat and to make changes on that version only.
- Changes must be clearly marked by using the ‘track changes’ function of the word processing software.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat for processing, so that it can be made available to the Commission.

Once the Committee of the Whole has begun its work:

- The Committee of the Whole will work with on-screen editing of draft resolutions.
- When conducting informal consultations outside of the Committee of the Whole, sponsors are requested to obtain from the Secretariat the latest version of the draft resolution as edited during a meeting and to make any modifications to the text using the ‘track changes’ function.
- The modified text must then be returned to the Secretariat so that it may be projected on the screen and the Committee of the Whole will continue its work based on the modified text.

“L” and “rev” documents

Each tabled draft resolution will receive an “L” symbol (indicating limited distribution) when it is received by the Secretariat; (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2). “L” documents can only be issued once the session has begun.

Draft resolutions will be given a “rev” symbol (indicating revised text) only if they are modified and submitted for formal processing during the Commission session (e.g. E/CN.7/2017/L.2/Rev.1).

A “rev” symbol will normally not be assigned before the Committee of the Whole has concluded its work on the particular draft resolution, because modifications to the text will be ongoing and carried out on-screen.

Once a draft resolution is approved by the Committee of the Whole, it will be processed and will receive a “rev” symbol before it is considered (and adopted) by the Plenary.

Co-sponsoring a resolution

Member States wishing to co-sponsor draft resolutions may sign the respective signing sheet, which is available with the Secretariat or by indicating their co-sponsorship in the Plenary Hall during the adoption of the resolution

Voting and decision making

Resolutions and decisions of the Commissions are usually adopted by consensus, both in the Committee of the Whole and in the Plenary.

Only decisions by the CND on the scheduling of substances under the international drug control treaties are taken by vote, in line with the applicable rules of procedure:

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/commissions/CND/Mandate_Functions/Mandate-and-Functions_Scheduling.html

Further information on the Commissions

The official documentation and further information is available on the website of the Commissions, which also includes lists of drug-related and crime-related General Assembly, Economic and Social Council and Commission resolutions and decisions:

Languages and documentation

The official languages of the United Nations are Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish. Official documents of the meetings will be made available in the agreed official languages for each particular international conference (see Annex).

As part of the Secretariat's efforts to reduce expenditure and limit environmental impact through the digitization of conference materials and publications, only a limited number of pre-session documents will be available at the session venue. Each delegation will receive a single, complete set of the documents in the language of its choice. Participants are therefore kindly requested to bring their own copies of the pre-session documents to the meeting.

Speaking at the meetings and interpretation services

In order to enhance the quality of interpretation at the meetings, advance text of speeches should be submitted to the Meetings Management Unit by email to unovconference@un.org.

Participants are invited to consult the following link for a guide for speaking at the meetings:

<https://www.calliope-interpreters.org/calliope-resources-event-planners-and-speakers/smart-speaking?lang=en>

The information contained in the guide is particularly useful when no text of speeches has been submitted to interpreters in advance of the intervention.

For enquiries regarding the list of speakers, please contact the Secretariat to the Governing Bodies at unodc-sgb@un.org prior to the meetings and the Conference Officers in the meeting room.
